03/07/2017	23	ORDER. The court has the parties' proposed schedule. The court, like the rest of the NDCA, handles discovery disputes via the joint letter process outlined in the court's standing order. Those processes require the parties to meet and confer, include those with technical knowledge, and submit one five–page letter. The parties can submit exhibits too. This process seems especially suited to the pace and format of FOIA productions. The court leaves the case on calendar for a CMC on 3/16/2017. The parties may confer about how best to raise their issues and stipulate to continue the CMC if they prefer. (Beeler, Laurel) (Filed on

04/14/2017		Set/Reset Hearing Further Case Management Conference set for 6/8/2017 09:30 PM in Courtroom C, 15th Floor, San Francisco. The court adopts the parties' proposed briefing schedule and resets the 4/20/2017 CMC to coincide with the hearing date. The court notes that the timing of the hearing (one week after full briefing as opposed to the ordinary two weeks) is tight; depending on the content of the parties' arguments, the court may reset the hearing a week out. That said, it may be that one week is enough. If the parties want more certainty, they may stipulate to continue the CMC and the motions hearing one week.
